

New Zealand International Young Artists Festival Auckland & Wellington 2020 Programme Information

Auckland: 13-17 January 2020

Auckland Young Artists Programme Information

Aimed for advanced students who well into their music learning, with ABRSM Grade 8* and above or equivalent, aged 26 and under.

- Chamber Music Programme, including orchestra and chamber music coaching
- Solo Programme (piano and strings), including masterclass with visiting artist (limited space)
- Students have public performance opportunities and access to all public concerts, lectures, and festival events
- Audition: submit a short video link or perform a live audition. Submitted videos can be in the format of YouTube or Vimeo links, shared Dropbox links or MP4 video files
- Live auditions will be on November 2
- Please indicate on the application form whether you are submitting a tape or auditioning so we can contact you accordingly

* Students with ABRSM Grade 5 to 7, or equivalent, can apply the Piano Solo Programme in Auckland only.

Auckland Schedule

Five days of exciting musical activities and concerts including chamber music, chamber orchestra, and concerto competitions, in collaboration with Auckland Philharmonic Orchestra Summer School.

Please note Auckland 2020 is not open for international participants.

Auckland Programme Fees

		Auckland	Wellington + Auckland
Young Artists	Solo Piano Programme	$550	$750
	String Programme	$550	$750
	Chamber Music Programme	$700	$1000

Wellington: 20-24 January 2020

Wellington Young Artists Programme Information

Aimed for advanced students who well into their music learning, with ABRSM Grade 8 and above or equivalent, aged 26 and under.

- Chamber Music Programme, including orchestra and chamber music coaching
- Solo Programme (piano and strings), including masterclass with visiting artist (limited space)
- Students have public performance opportunities and access to all public concerts, lectures, and festival events
- Audition: submit a short video link or perform a live audition. Submitted videos can be in the format of YouTube or Vimeo links, shared Dropbox links or MP4 video files
- Live auditions will be on November 2 at Samuel Marsden Collegiate School Auditorium
- Please indicate on the application form whether you are submitting a tape or auditioning so we can contact you accordingly

Wellington Rising Stars Programme & Competition

Aimed for beginner/intermediate students who recently started on their music training. No minimum music experience required, aged 5 to 17.

Two Instrumental Categories: Piano & Strings (Violin/Viola/Cello)

Free choice of repertoire, maximum 2 pieces:

- Group A: Age 7 and under, under 3 minutes
- Group B: Age 8-11, under 5 minutes
- Group C: Age 12-17, under 10 minutes

Preliminary round will be on Saturday 2 November at Samuel Marsden Collegiate School Auditorium. Selected students will compete in the final round during the festival in January 2020, with the award ceremony at the closing gala concert.

Festival participants will have public performance opportunities and access to all public concerts, lectures, and festival events.

Non-refundable entry fee $50, which is included as part of the festival fee, if student decided to attend the festival.

Wellington Schedule

20 January 2020 - Piano Celebration Day

Teachers and students perform together in a fun piano concert to kick-start the first day of festival in Wellington

- Piano recital by Michael Endres
- Piano masterclass

21 January 2020 - Chamber Music Day

Learning what makes a great performance by observing and participating in chamber music rehearsals, with the “Music Scientist” Dr. Hamish Robb and the violinist Monique Lapins.

- Chamber music rehearsals
- Evening chamber music concert performance by festival artists

22 January 2020 - Orchestra Wellington Day

Play alongside with professional musicians in Te Papa National Museum foyer, learn about orchestra from the professionals.

23 January 2020 - Composition Day

Meet the New Zealand “Music Architect”, experience cool and fun activities to create music as a composer.

24 January 2020 - Performance Extravaganza

Experience the excitement of performing with other music students and guest artists in the Gala Concert, plus a special award ceremony to conclude the festival.

Rising Star Competition Schedule will be announced in late November.

Wellington Programme Fees

		Wellington	Wellington + Auckland
Young Artists	Solo Piano Programme	$550	$750
	String Programme	$550	$750
	Chamber Music Programme	$550	$1000
Rising Stars	Solo Piano Programme	$450
	String Programme	$450	